FALL 2014 ALUMNI PROGRAMS

Celebration of William Daley '50 September 17 6:00 pm
Come back to campus and hear William Daley '50 talk about his work on display both in the President's Gallery at MassArt and in the SAC Exhibition Gallery. Daley will also be presented with the Society of Arts and Crafts' Medal for Excellence in Craft. Join your fellow alumni as we pay tribute to his amazing body of work. Co-presented by the Society of Arts and Crafts and MassArt. Tower Auditorium, 621 Huntington Ave, Boston, MA 02115

GRIN Gallery: After Hours September 20 5:00 pm
Catch up with your fellow alumni over a glass of wine at the opening reception for Making/Unmaking, a solo exhibition of work by Charlie Smith '10. Calling all Providence area alumni! Join us with gallery owners Corey Oberlander '10 and Lindsey Stapleton '09 for an evening of art and friends. Co-presented by Alumni Relations and GRIN. 60 Valley Street, Unit 3 Providence, RI 02909

Contracts for Visual Creators: No Attorney Required! September 30 6:30 pm
Contracts can protect both the artist and the client, and can be written in plain English. Lisa Shaftel of the Graphic Artists Guild will cover the advantages of using written contracts over oral agreements. She will fill your notebook with helpful tips for how to write a contract, what to include, and how to discuss a job with a client. Co-presented by Alumni Relations and the Boston Graphic Artists Guild. Tickets: $10 Kennedy Building, Conference Room, Floor 2

Haystack Alumni & Friends Retreat October 1-5
Experience an unforgettable long weekend of art-making at Haystack Mountain School of Crafts overlooking the breathtaking Maine coastline. Share experiences, skills, and memories in daily workshops and evening gatherings led by current MassArt faculty and alumni. Online registration is extended until September 12 at alumni.massart.edu/haystack14. Haystack Mountain School of Crafts. Deer Isle, ME

Comics & Graphic Novels Panel October 21 6:30 pm
